Mochipet is back with a techno-electro-hyphy-folk-experimental-musical extravaganza sure to make you shake your butt, saddle up, and "gas" "break" "kick." Since Mochipet's inception in 2001 this artist has been know to explore the bounds of the known and unknown musical landscapes that make up the 21st century. Marked as his Danciest album to date (as dancy as mochipet will ever get probably), Disko Donkey is a underground pool party with guests like: Ellen Allien, Scissors For Lefty, [a]pendics shuffle, Smash TV, Phon.o, Broker / Dealer, Caltrop, and much more. This party mule is ready to piñata, but don't even try it, you can't pin the Tale on this Donkey!

Ellen Allien

(bpitchcontrol)

As a producer / vocalist / dj / designer / and label owner of bpitchcontrol, ellen allien wears many hats. But she wears them well. Perhaps this is why her collaboration with Mochipet is so cohesive. Sharing many of the same head pieces (producer, vocalist, designer, label owner) as Mochipet there is no doubt there is some crossover. Check out they're collaboration "Robot Girl" on this release and also check out Ellen's new album Orchestra of Bubbles with Apparat.

Scissors For Lefty

(rough trade)

Signed to London's Rough Trade Records, home of The Strokes, Belle & Sebastian, Cornershop, Arcade Fire, and many more, Scissor For Lefty is a San Francisco Based Rock band that's not afraid to show they care about music. Know for their enigmatic live shows, whom they've shared with such greats as The Arctic Monkeys, Granddaddy, Black Heart Procession, I am Spoon Bender, Dengue Fever, and Pedro The Lion, to name a few. Scissors For Lefty take great care in crafting songs. You can check out Mochipet's remix of their song "Ghetto Ways" on this Disko Donkey release that's make keyboards rock like guitars again.

[a]pendics shuffle

(orac / adjunct / kompakt)

[a]pendics.shuffle is one of the many aliases of the prolific musical hydra who is Kenneth James Gibson. From time to time he has also been known as dubLoner, Premature Wig, Reverse Commuter and one half of Electronic Music Composer. Prone to making records with perverse titles full of heavy, disorienting sounds, Ken adds an unpredictable element of danger and emotional distress to any dance party. Please check out his Devilishly Dark "Pop and Lock" Disko Donkey Mix for Mochipet.

Smash TV

(bpitchcontrol)

You might not know this, but holger zilske aka smash tv is the co-producer of all last 3 solo Ellen Allien studio albums to date „stadtkind“, „berlinette“ und „thrills“. A lover of sequencers and drum machines he makes magically modern electro and techno. Check out his releases on bpitchcontrol and definitely check out his remix of Mochipet's Quills on this release!

Phon.o

(shitkatapult)

Carsten Aermes (a.k.a. Phon.o) has released works on Kit Clayton's Cytrax, T. Raumschmiere's Shitkatapult and Kid606's Tigerbeat6 labels. This Berlin man has the digestion of a power plant and a rectum like pliers; one with which you could tweak the Eiffel tower. With that he serves up crude raw materials consisting of Hip-hop and Breakbeats, Techno and Dub which become raucous monsters of an intimidating size. It is no wonder why he took to the Mochipet's Funk!

Broker / Dealer

(ghostly / asphodel)

Equipped with an array of samplers, sequencers and vintage synthesizers, San Francisco wunderkinds Broker/Dealer make catchy minimal electronic music equally suited for the den or the dancefloor. Having contributed a Process remix to the Traum artist's tribute record, Re-Processed, mixed by Doc Martin on the brand new Fabric 10 compilation Broker/Dealer are receiving a phenomenal amount of recognition. See how they turned Mochipet's Disko Donkey into a wonderful show horse on this release.

Caltrop

(tigerbeat6)

Caltrop is one Christoph Caominh. Munich born Vietnamese but now SF/Bayarea resident. The ex-roommate to Kid606, has done remixes for Eats Tapes (tigerbeat6) and contributions to Sid Musique on Erkrankung Durch Musique. He has played with DMX Krew, Soft Pink Truth, Kill Memory Crash, Legowelt to name a few. He is a local DJ with Tokyo Electric and loves German Techno, Chicago Acid House, Detroit Techno, and Freestyle! Please check out his Detroit Donkey Remix for Mochipet.
